

Show your client the strongest candidates first

Berke is a pre-employment assessment that identifies where your candidates will excel.

Why Berke?

Trusted by leading staffing firms

Successful staffing firms rely on Berke to help them identify the best talent and grow their business.

Make it your own

Berke can be fully private-labeled. Your company's logo can appear on the assessment in the reports.

Job fit score

Job fit scores help select the strongest candidates for each position.

Measure only what you need

Berke offers a quick personality-only assessment as well as more in-depth cognitive modules.

Intuitive reports

Your customers can read Berke reports with no training. Straight forward language and charts highlight each candidate's most valued qualities.

"Berke is an excellent assessment backed by a superior team of professionals. My clients love the ease of the reports. We have been a happy customer for more than four years!"

Talley Flora, CEO at Red Seat

Berke Assessment:

- Gives you an advantage over your competitors
- Allows you to recommend only the best candidates
- Increases candidate placement and success

Sales Executive Report

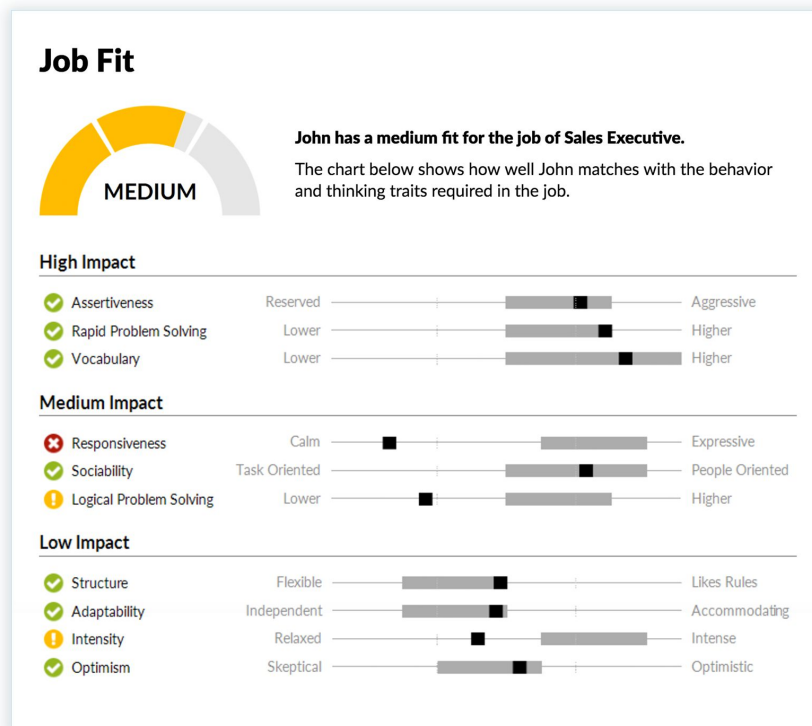

Job Fit describes how well the candidate matches up with job.

Traits and talents are listed in order of importance to job.

Brightly colored icons show a match or mismatch at a glance.

Grey bars represent ideal performance for job. Black boxes show your candidate's score.
